

EVENTS - NOVEMBER 2017 TO JANUARY 2018

Updated November 2017

NOVEMBER

The Changing Face of the City of London

Wednesday 1, On Location

What does the City of London Corporation need to do to make sure that the City remains the world's top financial and business centre? Conference, networking lunch and afternoon tours.

Ticketed, Member discount

Brixton tour

Saturday 11, Walking Tour

Explore the ongoing development of Brixton town centre with our Blue Badge Guides.

Ticketed / Part of Boroughs programme

Walthamstow tour

Saturday 11, Walking Tour

Explore the ongoing development of Walthamstow town centre with our Blue Badge Guides.

Ticketed / Part of Boroughs programme

London's Hotels

Friday 17, Breakfast talk

Project showcase of innovative hotel projects in the capital, exploring how the hotel sector can produce sustainable and profitable schemes.

Free / Part of Hotels & Hospitality programme

London's Towns

Tuesday 21, PechaKucha

An evening of quick-fire presentations using key projects and initiatives from the London's Towns Insight Study Showcase.

Ticketed, part of Boroughs programme

Public Assets – Enabling growth

Wednesday 29, Conference

Examining the role joint ventures, public/private partnerships, and local development companies have to play in London's ongoing development. Part of London's Towns Insight Study.

Ticketed, Members Free / Part of Boroughs programme

Abercrombie's Legacy

Wednesday 29, Evening Talk

As the Mayor launches consultation on his revised London Plan, this event asks: Do we need a new Abercrombie Plan to help shape the London of the future?

Free, Members only/ Part of Planning programme

New London Neighbourhood Tour - Victoria

Wednesday 29, Walking Tour

Ticketed / Part of Learning programme

NYLON: Resilience

Thursday 30, Simultaneous Seminar

Dan Doctoroff will join experts in New York and London for a discussion on resiliency. How do these global centres recover from disruption, both natural and political? How do you plan and build in a time of unrest?

Members only / Part of International programme

New London Model Talks

Every Friday Lunchtime, Model talks

Free / Part of Learning programme

DECEMBER

London's Towns

Friday 1, Breakfast Talk

Showcasing key findings from the London's Towns Outer London Station Sites charrette.

Free / Part of Boroughs programme

New London Sounding Board

December 1, Roundtable

Established by NLA in April 2011 to provide a single, cross-industry voice that contributes to the debate surrounding major change in the capital. The Board meets regularly to discuss key issues for London's built environment. This session will focus on the new draft London Plan.

Invitation only

Stratford

Friday 1, Lunchtime Talk

Explore the newest additions to London's emerging major centre, including the new business district at the International Quarter.

Free / Part of Boroughs programme

Tall Buildings

Wednesday 6, Roundtable

Roundtable discussion with key London thinkers on the future of the capital's tall buildings.

Invite Only / Part of Tall Buildings programme

New London Neighbourhood Tour - Bloomsbury & Fitzrovia

Saturday 9, Walking Tour

Ticketed / Part of Learning programme

Public Realm in London - ideas for the future

Tuesday 12, PechaKucha

PechaKucha exploring public realm strategies and schemes across central London.

Free / Part of Public Realm & Placemaking programme

The next 25 years of Transport

Wednesday 13, Conference

In this annual Transport & Infrastructure conference, we unpack the Mayor's Transport Strategy and explore priorities for the next 25 years as London's population rises to an expected 10.5 million. From healthy streets to major projects, how do we ensure transport is improving the quality of life of Londoners?

Ticketed, Members Free / Part of Transport & Infrastructure programme

Old Kent Road

Friday 15, Breakfast Talk

Discussing the second AAP for this Opportunity Area, exploring the capacity for innovative mixed-use development.

Free / Part of Boroughs programme

Walkable London: A Proposal by Zaha Hadid Architects

Friday 15, Lunchtime talk

Lunchtime talk, with Patrick Schumacher as part of 'Walkable London: A Proposal by Zaha Hadid Architects'.

Free

New London Model Talks

Every Friday Lunchtime, Model talks

Free / Part of Learning programme

EVENTS - NOVEMBER 2017 TO JANUARY 2018

Updated November 2017

JANUARY

Don't Move, Improve! 2018

Thursday 25, Private View + Winners
Announcement

Find out the winners of DMI 2018 as we toast the capital's best-designed home extension projects and launch this year's exhibition and magazine!

Invite Only / Part of Don't Move, Improve! programme

Why are we so focussed on modular?

January TBC, Roundtable

With the current big push on modular housing, what is the impact on London's housing stock?

What housing typologies is modular creating and what are the different methods for creating them?

Invite Only / Part of Housing programme

The new London Plan

January TBC, Breakfast talk

A chance to hear from the GLA and planning experts on what the new draft London Plan means for the built environment industry, and to feed in to the consultation on the draft.

Invite Only / Part of Planning programme

APPG for London's Planning and Built Environment

January TBC, Parliamentary Group

The APPG will meet over four sessions to examine key issues for London. This session will focus on the new draft London Plan.

Invite Only

New London Model Talks

Every Friday Lunchtime, Model talks

Free / Part of Learning programme